12/3/78

Dear Jeff,

There is always more than I can do and when I'm away even more stacks up.

After I left Bridgewater I had to go to Baltimore and from there to Washington, as you hay have seen in the coverage of the assassins' hearing with ohn Ray.

I have to save the reading for odd moments. Like when I'm resting from working outside, which is necessary for my health now but tires me. I'll read the enclosures you were kind enough to send when the rain stops and I get physically tired again!

our Wound Analysis sounds like an ambitious project. es, I'd like to read it.

I'm always glad to get around and meet people. I don't do it as much now so I enjoy each one more.

I thought the Bridgewater audiences were good.

I'm glad you came uo and spoke. Thanks.

Best wishes,